2026 Annual Conference Scholarship Application

The APSC Scholarship Fund was created to financially assist substance use disorder professionals with the registration cost and up to two night's lodging costs associated with attending the annual conference. Full and partial scholarships are being offered. Full scholarships will be awarded based upon need. Applicant must be a member of NAADAC/APSC.

APSC Certification and APSC membership are distinct. APSC membership is not required to hold a certified addictions counselor credential and certification does not automatically include membership. Click here for more information about the benefits of NAADAC membership

Send your completed application to APSC, certification@scaadac.org Deadline for submitting application is November 6, 2026.
